

Ms Grace Chan, Senior Social Work Officer / Family and Child Protective Services Unit (Wong Tai Sin/Sai Kung), Social Welfare Department

Ms Chan is an experienced registered social worker who has a wide exposure in various direct social work practices and support services, policy implementation and general administration and management. She currently oversees the Family and Child Protective Services Unit (Wong Tai Sin / Sai Kung) which specifically deals with spouse/cohabitant battering cases, suspected child abuse investigations and child abuse cases, as well as child custody dispute investigations and supervision. Throughout these years, she has been dedicating herself to the betterment of the social work services.