

Dr Sandra Tsang Kit-man, Associate Professor, Department of Social Work and Social Administration, The University of Hong Kong

Dr Sandra Tsang Kit-man, Associate Professor of the Department of Social Work and Social Administration of HKU, is a Registered Clinical Psychologist and a Registered Social Worker. Her research, publications and media profile focus on parent education, children with special educational needs, children and youth development and social services development. She was awarded the HKU University Teaching Fellow for outstanding teaching, the Chief Executive's Commendation for Community Services, and the 2011 Medal of the HK Paediatrics Society. She currently serves on the Social Welfare Advisory Committee, the Equal Opportunities Commission, Community Chest, and the Barrister Disciplinary Tribunal Panel.