

Dr Amelia Lee, President, World Organisation for Early Childhood Education, Hong Kong (O.M.E.P.H.K.)

Dr. Amelia Lee is Head of the Early Childhood and Elementary Education Division at Hong Kong Baptist University. She is a seasoned educator with 28 years of experience in teaching, curriculum design and educational management and is passionate about early childhood education, teacher training, and continuing education. She is Chairperson of the Committee on Early Childhood Education of the Curriculum Development Council and the President of the World Organisation for Early Childhood Education, Hong Kong. She also serves on the Sub-committee on Communication Strategy under the Committee on Free Kindergarten Education and the Standing Committee on Language Education and Research.