

Mr Albert Yu, Social Work Supervisor, Caritas Hong Kong

With solid experience in supervising social workers serving primary and secondary schools affiliated with Caritas-Hong Kong, Albert Yu acknowledges the importance of parent education in the different developmental stages of students. Adhering to the agency's mission and with passion in bringing concerted efforts from Caritas' service units to create positive cultures in Hong Kong families, Mr. Yu has recently set up a new team named "Caritas School Support Service" with an aim to further develop effective family work models to help families and students with special educational needs face various societal challenges.
