

Ms Ramy Chak, Service Supervisor of Chuk Yuen Integrated Service, The Salvation Army

Ms Ramy Chak is a Service supervisor of The Salvation Army Chuk Yuen Integrated Service. She graduated with a MA in Family Counseling & Family Education (MAFCFE), The Chinese University of Hong Kong. She worked at The Salvation Army for 17 years and serves a service cluster for children and youth, family and elderly services in community and residential settings on an integrated approach. Ramy has been committed to the serving the community by evolving the interfacing between elderly and youth services, promoting inter-generational culture, focusing on family based approach and installing social capital development in community.