

Mr TK Kang, Psychologist & CEO, The Nurturing Education (TyNE)

Mr T.K. Kang is a Clinical Psychologist with diverse clinical experience. He has work 30 years in various settings and has published professional work on empowering disabled persons to university students with technology. He currently provide assessment and intervention services for the gifted and special needs children. As a PsycTechSocPreneur (merging expertise in Psychology, Technology, Social networking and Entrepreneurship) he founded The Nurturing Education (TyNE) to bring innovation into preventive education. He is concerned about the millions of children in poverty and provides expertise to outreach via the global One Laptop per Child (OLPC) initiative. Right learning matters deeply to him.